

DIVOT A TRY

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: What is Divot A Try?

A: It is an introductory clinic, or group setting, for women wanting to learn how to play golf. It is a relaxed, friendly atmosphere to learn and develop new skills.

Q: What is the cost for Divot A Try and when does it start?

A: The cost is $20 each week and it includes instruction from the pros, range balls, a beverage in the clubhouse after the lesson, contests, and games. It starts on Tuesday May 28th and happens every Tuesday night until August 6th. Registration is from 6:00-6:15pm in the golf shop and the lesson begins at 6:30pm.

Q: Do I need my own clubs?

A: No. We provide clubs for each lesson if you do not have your own set.

Q: Do I need to go every week?

A: No, you don't need to attend every week. Although it is beneficial for you to attend as often as you can to increase your skills.

Q: Can I bring friends who don't golf to Divot A Try?

A: Absolutely! This is an introductory, clinic (group) style atmosphere. Regardless of skill level, players can benefit from practicing the skills that are taught.

Q: What will be worked on each week in Divot A Try?

A: Each week will vary from the basics of golf, short game practice (pitching, chipping, putting), full swing practice with different clubs, and etiquette.

